

AUSTRALIAN JUNIOR 2010

Supported by the Tasmanian Government through Events Tasmania
Bulletin One: 15 Jan 2010

Don't forget: GM Ian Rogers simul from 3 pm on, $10/player

We're off and running! A little later than intended after a small degree of chaos with the clocks (most Tasmanians have never seen a one-minute increment, and hence refuse to believe that any such creature exists) but round one was a lot less mismatched than the often-large ratings differences suggested.

In the Under 18 section not a single game was drawn, but three 1300s players (Stephen Daenke, Joshua Bishop and Charlie Smith) seized the day (or at least the free pieces and the ratings points) after their opponents miscalculated or blundered.

In the most exciting game of the day Lawrence Bretag took the fight to second seed (and the first ever Arlauskas medallist!) Bobby Cheng, in his usual flamboyant and expansive style. Lawrence had a strong position for a while until time trouble told against him and the material balance ended up something like this: passed pawns run pretty fast, but minor pieces can weave mating nets much faster.

In the Under 12s the biggest surprise on ratings was Sasha Parsons defeating Mason Carter, but ratings often don't tell the full story in that age group. Watch out when leaving a piece under attack while you attack another – you might drive that piece somewhere where it actually wants to go. This was a theme in a few games today. Meanwhile, if you're looking for hope when behind in a minor piece ending you can sometimes draw by throwing your last piece to run your opponent out of pawns, as both Penelope Drastik and Ruihong Lu did in the Under 18 Girls event.

Event Notices

Format of Girls Events: The Under 12 Girls will be a nine-round round-robin, as there are only ten entrants. The Under 18 Girls will be a nine-round Swiss. Offered the choice between this and a 13-round round robin the entrants very strongly preferred the former.

With both girls' tournaments reduced to nine rounds, the girls now all get Saturday 16th as a rest day, and will resume the main tournament with round 3 on the 18th while the other divisions play round 5. Yes, that's right, while the boys struggle and suffer through the dreaded double round and the ordeals of being unable to consult a grandmaster for more than six hours about their preparation for round 4, the girls get the whole day off. They are even entitled to come along and laugh at the boys (silently and without distracting them of course) ... provided that they play in the rapid the following day!

Thankyou: A huge thanks to everyone who helped us get set up yesterday. Setting up on the day is a huge undertaking and we couldn't have done it without you.

Bulletins: If anyone has taken any photos (/drawn any pictures/giftwrapped any small oceanic islands) that are even vaguely relevant to the tournament that they would like to submit to the bulletin, I will consider printing a small number as space, time and my non-existent layout talents permit. Thanks to Russell Horton, Thomas Hendrey and Adam Carter for their help on game entry, as well as all those who have entered their games.
